Co-Op pharmacist Balwinder Chohan with leaflet for a healthy Ramadan

A HEALTHY RAMADAN

By Paul Peterson

waltham@yellowad.co.uk

A NEW guide has been launched to help people stay healthy during Ramadan.

The free pocket-sized booklet created by the Co-operative Pharmacy will be available at more than 80 pharmacies across the country during the Islamic month of fasting.

A number of branches will also offer advice to help Muslims stop smoking and the meningococcal vaccination for people who are undertaking a pilgrimage to Mecca.

Cathy Cox, the Co-operative Pharmacy's primary care services manager, said: "We are hoping that our professional and qualified pharmacists are the first port of call for community health advice and minor ailments. This is why we would urge Muslim's fasting during Ramadan, who take regular prescribed medication, as well as those who wish to stop smoking to come and see one of our pharmacists for advice."

Dr Anil Mehta, chair of the Redbridge Clinical Commissioning Group (CCG), said: "Fasting during Ramadan from sunrise to sunset each day can be very difficult for some, especially those with an illness or medical condition. You can take some prescription medicines during fasting or your GP could change your prescription."

The Co-operative said that although Muslims can be exempt from fasting if they are ill, many continue to observe the fast. This can mean that medicines may not be taken at the correct time intervals, not taken at all or their effectiveness could be altered.

The group also said that Ramadan is the ideal time to stop smoking with Muslims abstaining during daylight hours to fulfil their religious obligation of fasting.

Cathy added: "We appreciate the importance of cultural understanding and sensitivity when discussing healthcare and religious beliefs but we strongly recommend talking to one of our pharmacists before making changes to the way people take medicines."

Ramadan is the Islamic month of fasting in which Muslim participants refrain from eating and drinking between dawn and sunset for a full moon cycle for 29 to 30 days. This year's Ramadan is expected to start on June 28 and end on July 27.

Competition

WIN! TICKETS TO SEE 20TH CENTURY BOY

INSPIRED by the life of rock legend Marc Bolan, the smash hit musical 20th Century Boy comes to Southend's Cliffs Pavilion for one week only from July 14 - 19.

Starring Sue Jenkins (Brookside/Casualty), Luke Bailey (Waterloo Road), Warren Sollars (Mamma Mia!, From Here to Eternity), 20th Century Boy features some of the greatest pop songs ever written including 24 classic Bolan smash hits such as Get It On, Ride A White Swan, Metal Guru, I Love To Boogie, Hot Love and 20th Century Boy.

The musical tells the story of Marc Bolan and his band T.Rex, exposing some of the myths and taking the audience on an emotionally gripping, yet joyful journey through Marc's fascinating life.

Rocker, poet, electric warrior, king of glam and godfather of punk, Bolan was arguably the biggest rock star the UK had ever seen - 'Bigger than the Beatles' the press said. Before his tragic death in 1977, just days short of his 30th birthday, Bolan lived life at breakneck speed, creating a series of iconic images, a string of number one hits and an army of obsessive fans.

Packed with all T.Rex's 70s hits, staged by Gary Lloyd (Thriller Live) and with a West End cast, 20th Century Boy is a glorious story and celebration of glam rock at its colourful best!

For more details or to book call the Box Office on 01702 351135 or visit www.thecliffspavilion.co.uk
For your chance to win one of six pairs

Organisers of St Peter's Church flower film festival at Aldborough Hatch

Picture by Martin Dalton

Floral films

THE stage is almost set for the annual St. Peter's Church Flower Festival, at Aldborough Hatch, this week.

Keen gardeners will bringing classic films to life with their floral creations including favourites including the Pirates of the Caribbean, Harry Potter and Mary Poppins.

The festival, which is now in its 34th consecutive year, will be taking place at the church in Aldborough Hatch, Newbury Hatch, from 10am on Saturday, June 28.

Priest-in-Charge, Rev Kate Lovesey, said: "This year's festival promises to be the best ever. We look forward to welcoming members of the wider community of all faiths and backgrounds to join us for a fun and inspirational weekend with friends."

The ever popular craft market will also be returning to the flower festival with quality goods at reasonable prices, including home-made cakes and preserves.

There will also be a selection of entertainment from The

Eastbury Concert Band, St Barnabas Band, 'Bells Aloud' from St Margaret's Barking, The Palmerstone Dancers, Indian Dancers from the Redbridge Asian Mandal and The Charmas Stage School

The choirs of St. Peter's, St. John's and All Saints will perform choral music and there will be refreshments include ploughman's lunches, and strawberries and cream teas.

The flower festival will also take place on Sunday, June 29 and Monday, June 30.

Man gets 16 month jail term for illegally exporting electrical waste to West Africa

A MAN has been jailed for 16 months for exporting hazardous waste.

Joe Benson, from Broad Street, Loughton, was jailed at Snarbrook Crown Court last Friday and becomes the first ever defendant to receive a custodial sentence for illegally exporting waste.

The court heard the 54-year-old exported 46 tonnes of hazardous electrical waste to Nigeria, Ghana, the Ivory Coast and the Congo and stood to make around £32,000 from the enterprise.

The Environment Agency found broken cathode ray tube televisions and ozone depleting fridge freezers inside four shipping containers seized at UK ports from September 2012 to April 2013.

Investigators proved that Benson collected electrical waste from civic amenity sites in London and the home counties before taking the waste to his licensed waste site in Walthamstow. But he failed to carry out safety tests and instead sold on the waste for about £8,000 a container to West Africa.

The court also heard that Benson was previously convicted of exporting similar hazardous electrical waste to Nigeria during one of the Environment Agency's biggest export investigations in 2011.

In sentencing Judge Dawson told Benson last week: "In my view this is a serious offence that you have committed before. The public and the world need protecting from this sort of offence."

Harvey Bradshaw, from the Environment Agency, said that the sentence was a 'landmark ruling'.

He added: "It's the first time anyone has been sent to prison for illegal waste exports as a result of our investigations. We take a zero tolerance approach to those commit waste crime, and cracking down on illegal waste exports will continue to be a priority for the Environment Agency."

Anyone with information about waste crime can call Crimestoppers anonymously on 0800 555 111.

Free school for 420 pupils

By Suzi Muston

havering@yellowad.co.uk

A NEW free school has been announced.

The Department of Education was not able to confirm when the school will be built, but said it would be called Drapers Primary School and would be in Harold Hill in Havering. It will cater for 420 pupils aged from three to 11.

The school will follow the national curriculum.

A spokesman said: "Drapers' Primary School will focus on traditional values and high quality teaching, which will enable young people in the area to achieve their full potential."

Drapers is one of 18 free primary schools that was announced by the Government on Thursday. Together, they will provide Londoners with more than 11,000 school places.

Free schools have come in for recent criticism over the failings of some governing bodies to meet standards set by Ofsted.

The proposer group is the Drapers' multi-academy, a trust that sponsored the Drapers' Academy. The trust has recently become sponsors of Brookside junior school, also located in the Harold Hill.

It is sponsored by the Drapers' Company, one of the most powerful companies in London.

The Drapers' Company is more than 600 years old and currently provides financial and governor support to more than 20 schools, colleges and universities.

A spokesman for Havering Council said: "This school will ensure we have many more school places available for families in Harold Hill."

"This is great news for local people."

Fact box

- Free schools have yet to be open long enough for exam data to be available
- Some free schools initially open in temporary accommodation

Brickies cement reputations at church

SKILLS: Dominic Proctor, Star Mohammad and Michael Coates help at All Saints Church

BRICKLAYING students at Havering College of Further and Higher Education are building a name for themselves as skilled craftsmen by helping out a local church.

Five who have just completed either a level two or level three bricklaying qualification at the college's Rainham Campus construction centre, have built a dwarf brick wall at All Saints Church in Ardleigh Green Road, Hornchurch.

The project included Star Mohammad, 29, of Dagenham, Dominic Proctor, 19, from Upminster, Michael Coates, 19, from Rainham, David Pengelly, 20 from Harold Hill and Ryan Boxall, 19, from Chelmsford.

The college sourced 850 bricks from Belgium to match in with those of the main church building. Technology lecturer Demetrious Savvides said: "This has given our students the chance to showcase their brickwork skills on a real-life project which has taken three days to complete."

Vicar of All Saints Church, the Rev. Chris Wragg said: "The new wall is fantastic and we have had innumerable comments from people who are very impressed by the workmanship. It has really improved the grounds of the church and we are very grateful to the college for doing it for free."

Breakfast club boost

A SCHOOL breakfast club has scooped support from a leading cereal company.

The club at Leys Primary School, in Leys Avenue, Dagenham, will receive £250 of Kellogg's crates of cereals and products every month - worth about £3,000 a year.

The school, which has been running the breakfast club for more than two years, won the prize in recognition of its success to help give pupils a healthy start to their day.

Head of school, Grant Krog, said: "We are delighted with the breakfast club, which is making a real difference to more than 25 pupils and is helping us provide help and support to their most vulnerable families by offering a free meal at breakfast time."

The Leys Primary school, which is federated with Beam Primary School, set up the breakfast club in March 2012 after receiving an initial grant of £200 from Kellogg's.

Councillor Evelyn Carpenter, cabinet member for schools, said: "Five to 11 year olds starting the day alert and ready to learn is another example of ambition and creativity making a real difference in the school community. The breakfast club is a feather in their cap and an example of the significant improvements from our federation."

It's ladies' night

THREE generations of a family are to step out for their first ladies night star walk for Saint Francis Hospice – a charity close to their heart.

Sally Reynders, 49, from Upminster, will be joined by her 24-year-old daughter Dee Reynders and mum Linda Harman for the star walk in Romford town centre on Saturday July 5.

They said they are taking part because the hospice cared for Sally's step-dad John Harman from Cranham.

Beauty therapist Sally said her step-dad went to the day therapy unit for about nine weeks before receiving care at home and then spent his final days in the care of the hospice at home team from before he died in April this year from liver and bowel cancer.

Sally said: "Saint Francis Hospice were there for us the whole time. Their volunteer drivers picked him up and took him to the day therapy unit where he received reflexology, massage and lots of special care."

"We are delighted to do the walk to give back to the hospice that gave so much to us."

Linda added: "The hospice staff were a tremendous help. I couldn't have managed without them and John was so grateful too."

"I find I can talk to Lilian from the hospice's family support team. She visits me once a week and sits and listens which is a great help to me."

WE ARE FAMILY: Linda Harman and Sally Reynders walking in memory of John Harman

This year's star walk has a Rio carnival theme with live music from TV personality Rylan Clark, Latin dancing, a warm-up from sponsors GO30 Romford.

Fire fighters from Harold Hill fire station will provide safety advice as well as cheer on the walkers and lend a helping hand.

The walk starts and finishes at The Liberty Shopping Centre, Romford, and the entertainment begins 10.30pm.

To book a place on the walk, visit www.sfh.org.uk, or email fundraising@sfh.org.uk, or call 01708 771427.

TESTIMONIALS of our Success

Really professional install in my Victorian terrace, they were able to harmonise the design and detailed work with the original features of my house. Whole house fitted, including a new backdoor, in three days.
Excellent work, thanks
Mr Ramirez E17

The fitters were friendly, neat, tidy and efficient. Many people have commented on how good the new windows look. I would happily recommend dolphin to family and friends.

"The team at Dolphin are brilliant, I would recommend them to anyone"

Sounds of summer

A FESTIVAL of arts and heritage kicked off at the weekend with the return of the ever-popular Fairkytes open day and the Langtons summer concert.

On Saturday, Fairkytes Art Centre in Billet Lane, Hornchurch, saw more than 1,000 visitors join in taster sessions in music, arts and crafts.

Then thousands more gathered to see the Westminster Philharmonic Orchestra perform in the grounds of Langtons House in Billet Lane on Sunday with picnic baskets in tow.

Festivities continue with a free performance of William Shakespeare's Macbeth on Thursday, July 10, performed by the Ilyria Theatre Company in Fairkytes Garden.

GOOD CONDUCT: Jonathan Butcher leads Westminster Philharmonic at the Langtons summer concert.

On Saturday, July 12, from midday to 3pm there will be free jazz concert, classical, pop and world music, live – in venues in the High Street. And on Saturday, July 26, from midday to 5pm, there will be free all-day ukulele extravaganza with the opportunity learn the instrument.

Legendary brand launches tyre specifically for SUVs

Firestone re-ignites

FULL CIRCLE:
The new tyre from Firestone

by Chris Russon

BACK in the Swinging 60s, if you wanted to be cool on the road you ran your car on Firestone rubber. After all, it was the choice of the motor racing stars of the day and had that all-American image.

Graham Hill won the Indianapolis 500 in 1966 on Firestones. Jim Clark had done it the year before and John Surtees also raced on them. In fact Firestone and the Indy 500 go back to the very first staging of the classic US race in 1911 when Ray Harroun took the chequered flag. It was 11 years after the firm started making tyres under the guidance of founder Harvey Firestone.

But corporate troubles and a number of high-profile quality issues in America saw the company merge with Bridgestone in 1988. As a newer kid on the block Japanese-owned Bridgestone was hungry to establish itself and in Europe so Firestone went on a back burner.

Now, however, it's comeback time and the Firestone profile is about to be raised with the launch of a new tyre specifically for SUVs. The Destination HP has been designed not only to be hard-wearing but also safe and reliable in both wet and dry.

Price-wise, it sits just below the premium tyre brands like Michelin and Continental. Firestone claims it will be 30 per cent more durable than average SUV tyres and helps eco-driving without compromising on factors such as stopping distance and aquaplaning.

It is available in 19 sizes and is being aimed at owners of mid-sized SUVs such as the Mazda CX-5, the Dacia Duster and the Sportage. We tried a set fitted to a Kia Sportage and the Destination HP showed good potential as a multi-purpose tyre that fall into the £100 bracket.

LONDON BOROUGH OF WALTHAM FOREST DESIGNATION OF AN AREA FOR SELECTIVE LICENSING Section 80, Housing Act 2004

Notice is hereby given that the London Borough of Waltham Forest in exercise of its powers under section 80 of the Housing Act 2004 ("the Act") has on the 24th day of June 2014 designated for selective licensing the area of the London Borough of Waltham Forest as delineated and edged red on the Map at Annex A.

The designation shall be known as the London Borough of Waltham Forest Designation of an Area for Selective Licensing 2014. The designation applies to any privately rented property subject to any statutory exceptions set out below.

The designation falls within a description of designations for which the Secretary of State has issued a General Approval under section 82 of Housing Act 2004: Licensing of Houses in Multiple Occupation and Selective Licensing of Other Residential Accommodation (England) General Approval 2010 dated 30th March 2010. Therefore the designation need not be confirmed and will come into force on 1st April 2015 and unless previously revoked, this designation shall cease to have effect on 31st March 2020.

This designation applies to any house which is let or occupied under a tenancy or licence within the area shown at Annex A unless:

1. The house is a house in multiple occupation and is required to be licensed under Part 2 of the Act; or
2. The house is subject to a temporary exemption under section 86 of the Act; or
3. The house is subject to an Interim or Final Management Order under Chapter 1 or 2 of Part 4 of the Act;

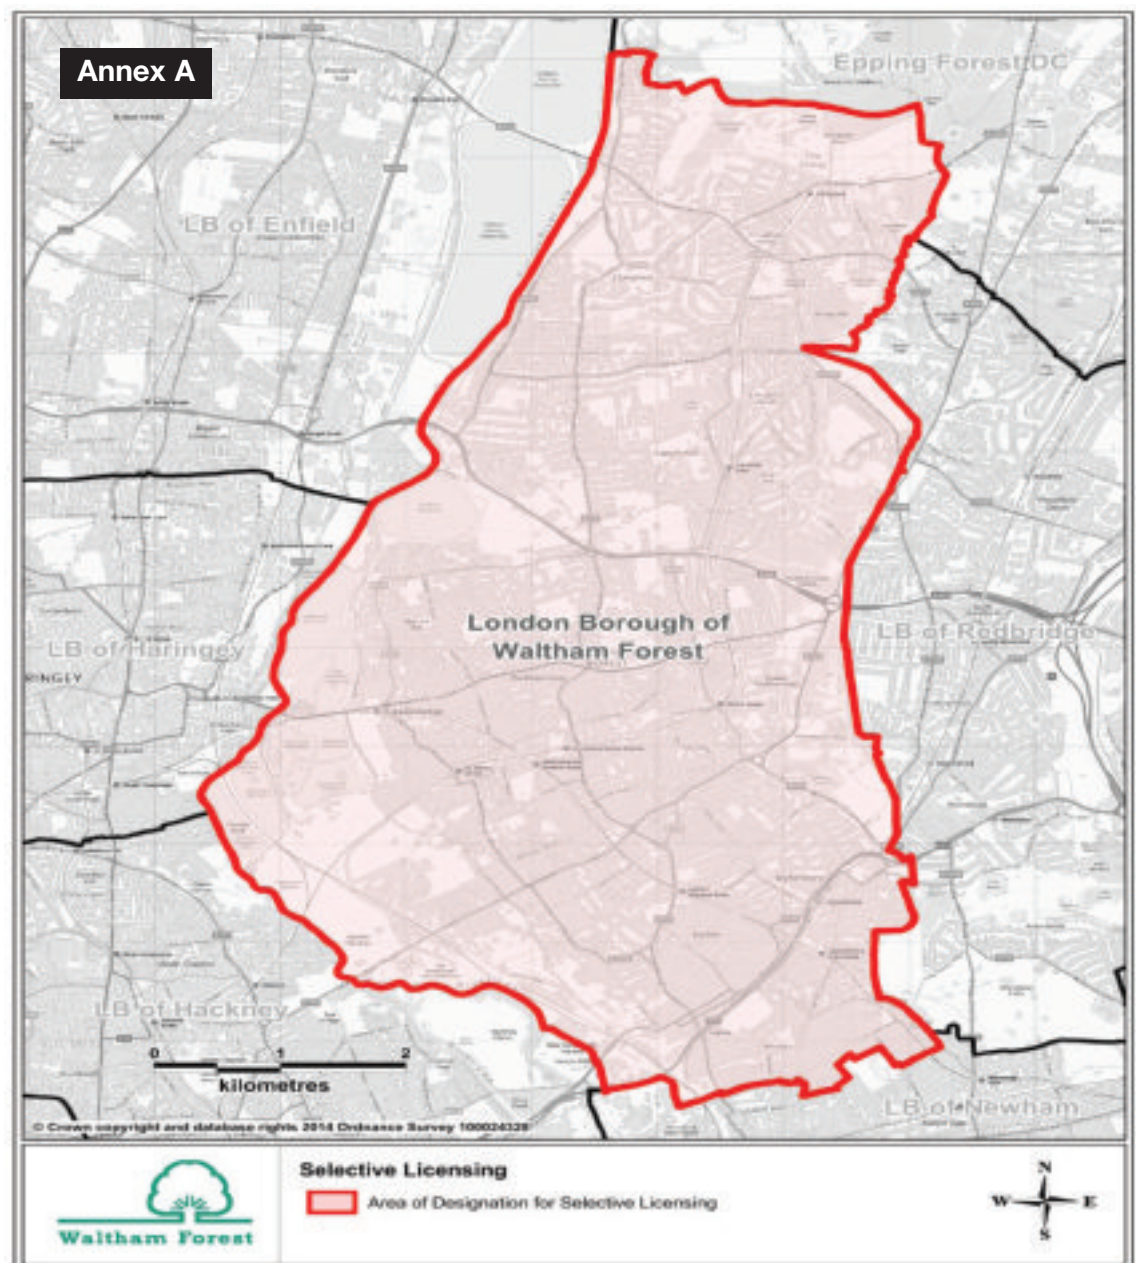

4. The tenancy or licence of the house has been granted by a body which is registered as a social landlord under Part 1 of the Housing Act 1996;

5. The house is occupied under a tenancy or licence which is exempt under the Act or the occupation is of a building or part of a building so exempt as defined in The Selective Licensing of Houses (Specified Exemptions) (England) Order 2006 SI 370/2006

Upon the Designation coming into force on 1st April 2015 any person who operates a licensable property without a licence shall be guilty of an offence under Section 95(1) of the Act, and shall be liable to prosecution and upon summary conviction liable to a fine not exceeding £20,000. A person who breaches a condition of a licence is liable to prosecution and upon summary conviction liable to a fine not exceeding £5,000.

If you are a landlord, managing agent, or a tenant, and wish to inspect this designation, apply for a licence or require further information, this is available from:

CONDITIONS OF ACCEPTANCE FOR ALL ADVERTISEMENTS

Orders are accepted by the Publishers subject to the Standard Conditions agreed between the Newspaper Society and the Institute of Practitioners in Advertising. Save that:
1. Advertisements are accepted on the conditions that (a) descriptions relating to goods are accurate and no way contravene the provisions of the Trade Descriptions Act 1968, and the Fair Trading Act 1973, and (b) the copy complies with the British Code of Advertising Practice. Advertisements offering credit or hire facilities must conform to the Consumer Credit (Advertisements) Regulations 1980.
2. Classified Advertisers offering goods or service of a business, commercial or trade nature will, at the discretion of the Publishers, be deemed 'Trade Advertisers' and as such, must include their names in advertisements. A telephone number is an optional addition to these requirements and not an alternative.
3. The Publishers accept no liability whatsoever for any loss or damage however caused arising out of:
(a) Any error, inaccuracy or omission in the printing or publishing of any advertisement;
(b) Any failure to publish an advertisement on the day / date or day / dates specified by the advertiser; or
(c) Any delay in forwarding or omission to forward replies to box numbers to the advertiser.
4. The Publishers will endeavour to publish advertisements on the day / date or day / dates specified by the advertiser but insertion days / dates cannot be guaranteed.
5. Where shrinkage of advertisement occurs for whatever reasons the advertisement will be charged to the nearest full centimetre. This will NOT apply to the full-page advertisements, which remain full pages even after shrinkage.
6. The Publishers reserve the right to reject an advertisement or to vary it in any way they deem fit, at any time before publication, whether or not the advertisement has already been accepted for publication.
7. Whilst every effort is made to minimise errors in advertisements, mistakes do sometimes occur. Advertisers or their agents should therefore check their advertisements and inform us of any errors immediately. Responsibility cannot be accepted for more than one incorrect insertion, typographical or minor changes, which do not affect the value of the advertisement, do not qualify for republication or allowances.
8. All goods advertising rates (except classified finance and semi-display) are subject to and include a 0.1% Advertising Standards Board of Finance surcharge, payable by the advertisers to help finance the self-regulatory control system administered by the Advertising Standards Authority.
9. All rates quoted are subject to VAT at the rate currently in force at the time the advertisement appears.
10. Should the rate for advertisements be altered the price for remaining insertions shall be revised accordingly or the publishers shall have the right to cancel the unexpired portion of the order.
11. The placing of an advertisement order will be deemed an acceptance of these conditions.
12. Account facilities are granted at the discretion of the Company.
13. All accounts must be settled within the terms agreed by the Company and the Customer.
(1) Should an advertiser be in breach of the agreed terms, the publisher shall be entitled to levy a 10% surcharge on the value of the whole deal in respect of accounts with terms of less than 30 days, and any discounts or commissions that had been allowed will be reclaimed.
(2) Regular monthly accounts that are in breach of the agreed terms will pay an interest rate of 6% above the current bank rate for each month in respect for an advertisement account is overdue and discounts or commissions that had been allowed will be reclaimed. Should legal action be required the interest will be charged in accordance with the County Court Act 1984.
14. Where an advertiser instructs / appoints an advertising agent to act on their behalf, the advertiser will remain jointly and severally liable for payment in respect for an advertisement(s) should the appointed agent fail to pay. For the avoidance of doubt, the agent acts for the advertiser and not for the publisher with the agent being responsible for notifying the advertiser of this liability.
15. All queries must be notified, preferably in writing to the accounts department of the publisher within 7 days of the invoice date.
16. All digital services are maintained in partnership with the publishers' hosting service providers. Every effort is made to ensure the continuity of these services, but some occasional technical downtime beyond the publishers control may occur. The publisher and its associated companies shall be under no liability if the production and distribution of web services is delayed or prevented by any cause beyond the control of the publisher.
17. The Publisher may provide voucher copies for published advertisements in electronic form only subject to certain criteria. Further information is available on request.
18. The copyright of advertisements produced wholly or partially by the Publishers belong to the Publishers. Advertisers may not reproduce such advertisements without the Publishers' consent.
Box Numbers
Boxes are open for the receipt of bona fide answers and are not available for distribution of trade canvassing matter. Original testimonials, goods, cash, stamps or payments of any kind and must not be enclosed. A box Number and postal address are sent as part of the advertisement, i.e. Box No., centre address. There is no charge for forwarding replies. Box numbers alone are not available for use in 'Trade' advertisements, other than Employment and Business Opportunities.
Holiday & Travel Category
All advertising must contain the name of the advertiser, phone number alone are not permitted.
Data Protection
The service you have requested may require us to carry out a credit search at a credit-referencing agency, which will record the fact that a search has been made. We may need to share your information with other lenders and credit reference agencies. However, we will only use the information from these searches to make credit-granting decisions and, if necessary, for fraud prevention or tracing debtors.
Data controller will use your information for administration and analysis. We may share your information with other Trade Group Newspaper companies or carefully selected third parties. We, or they, may send you details of other goods and services, which may be of interest to you. The information may be provided by letter, telephone or other reasonable means of communication. Calls may be recorded or monitored for training purposes.
Special conditions apply with regard to the advertising of adult services, which are outlined to all persons submitting such advertisements.

HAMMERS TO FACE SPURS IN OPENING DAY DERBY GAME

Football

By Brian Jeeves

WEST HAM United will get a chance to make it four-in-a-row, as the Barclays Premiership fixtures have thrown the Hammers together with North London rivals Tottenham Hotspur on the opening day of the 2014/15 season.

The match will take place at Upton Park on Saturday August 16 (3pm) and will undoubtedly capture the imagination of both sets of fans.

Despite a frustrating campaign, the Hammers did a Premiership double over Spurs last season as well as winning 2-1 in the Capital One Cup at White Hart Lane last December. In the meantime the club have announced that Italian giants Sampdoria will visit Upton Park on Saturday August 9 (3pm) to contest the first ever Marathonbet Cup.

In Sky Bet League One, Leyton Orient will look to go one better this time around, having just missed out in the play-offs. The O's get their season underway by welcoming newly promoted Chesterfield to the Matchroom Stadium. Meanwhile, Colchester United travel to Boundary Park to face Oldham Athletic. The U's will be keen to avoid another relegation scrap.

In Sky Bet League Two, Southend United will hit the road on the opening day with a visit to Accrington Stanley. Stanley are managed by former Blackburn Rovers striker James Beattie and have proved to be difficult opponents for the Shrimpers. Indeed, Southend have recorded only two victories from six outings since the East Lancashire outfit returned to the Football League in 2006.

Elsewhere in League Two, Dagenham & Redbridge will look to improve on a satisfactory season when they open their campaign at Morecambe.

In the first round of the Capital One Cup, Southend United were handed a home tie with Sky Bet League One Walsall. Elsewhere Leyton Orient face a lengthy trip to the West County where they'll face Plymouth Argyle and Colchester United will visit Championship club Charlton Athletic. As a result of the latter tie, U's friendly with the Addicks, scheduled for Wednesday July 30, has now been postponed.

Dagenham & Redbridge pulled out a plum tie with newly promoted Championship side Brentford at the London Borough of Barking and Dagenham Stadium.

■ Local clubs have also been bolstering their pre-season preparation with additional friendly dates added to their fixture lists. Southend United welcome Championship Ipswich Town and newly promoted Premiership outfit Queens Park Rangers to Roots Hall. These games take place on consecutive nights.

Colchester United will travel to Kenilworth Road on Tuesday July 29 to face Sky Bet League Two new boys Luton Town (kick-off 7:45pm), while the Hatters will be visiting Essex themselves a week before when they send a team to Ryman League East Thurrock United (Wednesday July 23).

Canvey Island welcome Sky Bet League One opponents to Park Lane in the shape of Peter Taylor's Gillingham. Taylor started his career at Canvey before being transferred to Southend United for £100 and four footballs! This match will take place on Friday July 25.

Billericay Town manager Craig Edwards used the clubs official website to exclaim his delight at the "Stellar pre-season line-up" at New Lodge. Blues have added dates with Southend United (Tuesday July 15) and Championship side Millwall (Saturday July 26).

Snooker

Selt puts practice on the table

ROMFORD potter Matt Selt is looking forward to playing against some of snooker's biggest names in the next few months – even if it is only on his new competition-standard practice table.

The World No.48 is set to compete in China later this month, before taking delivery of his new table to his base at Attack Snooker Club in Nuneaton.

And having worked with snooker legend Stephen Hendry to improve his game in recent months, Selt is hoping his new baize will pay dividends.

"It just means that I can practice under the same conditions as I would play under in tournaments, and that will make a huge difference," he said.

"When your table is in great condition you wake up in the morning and can't wait to get down to the club and start hitting some balls.

"It also means that people will come over and play against me – (Mark) Selby, Hendry and (Shaun) Murphy will come over for a game.

"I've not had that for a few years and I've missed it – playing against those players gets you so sharp.

"When I was practicing regularly in Essex I would be practicing with Joe Perry, Jimmy White and Ronnie O'Sullivan.

"They all came over to play me because I had the best table in the area, and that's what I want to replicate here."

Selt heads out to China on June 15 for two tournaments, having qualified for ranking tournament Wuxi Classic before sticking around for the Asian Tour event in Yixing.

"In the past few years I've been accustomed to playing out there and it's only now that I've got my own routine of how to cope with the jetlag and lack of sleep," said Selt.

"So I feel now that every time I go out to China I can do some damage in the tournaments, rather than turn up and get tired before getting beaten.

"The biggest thing that I've found over the last few years is to just sleep when you're tired, which means you are up at the most peculiar times, but so are most of the other players."

And Selt, 29, is confident he will be in form for his Asian adventure – despite a poor showing in his last match.

"I just played in the Australian Open qualifier and I got beaten (by Allan Taylor). I was absolutely disgusted with the way I played," he added.

"Up until then my form has been pretty good. I lost in the last round of the qualifying for the World Championships having been 6-3 up and I was devastated to lose it.

"I've been back to practice to rectify what happened in the Australian [qualifiers] and I feel like I'm hitting the ball like a dream."

■ British Eurosport is the home of snooker, showing 19 tournaments per season including the World Championship, UK Championship the Masters and all other ranking events.

Victory at last but relegation fears remain for club

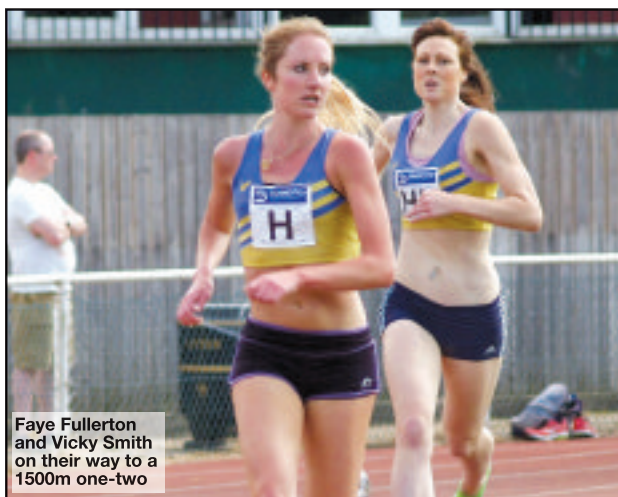

Athletics

HAVING'S Southern League athletics team took full advantage of their home fixture with a big win at Hornchurch on Saturday but still need good results in the remaining two matches to ease relegation worries.

The ladies team were close to full strength and dominated the opposition with 10 track wins and seven in the field. Modupe Shokunbi won a sprint double, ducking under 25 seconds for the first time in the 200m – the third fastest ever by a club U17. Her B string partners also won with Tayla Humm setting a new PB in winning the shorter sprint while 200m B string winner Michelle Hughes also won the B high jump in a PB and smashed her 400m best, running as a non-scorer, with the fastest time by a club athlete for five years.

There was a welcome return to club colours from Faye Fullerton in only her second track competition this summer, with a win double in the 800m and 1500m, with her B string partners Sarah Wilson (800m) and Vicky Smith (1500m) also victorious, with Vicky setting a new career best.

The victory roll on the track continued with wins from Robyn Matson in the 3000m, before placing second in the 'chase, and Bella Woods' B chase victory after winning the 400m hurdles B in a new best. Track second places went to the

Faye Fullerton and Vicky Smith on their way to a 1500m one-two 400m pairing of Nina Brennan and Sam Hill and Gemma Phillips in the 3000m in her first track outing this summer after completing her university final exams. Claire Brennan added hurdles points with a season's best in the sprint hurdles.

In the field Mercy Gutteridge and Tina Quinlivan won the A and B pole vault and another double came in the discus where Rachel Forder and Freya Gutteridge both scored maximum points. Emma Christmas won the javelin and Alice Martin was runner up in the B while Bethan Siddons won the high jump and was second in the B triple jump as Ella Lindsay's PB in placing second in the A took her to third on the club all-time U17 list. Zoe Young added points in the long jump and shot and set a season's best in the non scoring 100m.

The men also had their share of success on home territory. Emmanuel Quarshie and Duane Jibunoh took full points in the shot and discus with Emmanuel winning the A shot and Duane the A discus, with the roles reversed in the B strings. There was a strong showing over the barriers as Rob Warner and Jason Lendon come up trumps with 'chase victories and George Hadler winning the 400m hurdles and was second in the sprint hurdles and B 100m in a new PB.

The industrious Arron Bonning was second in the B sprint hurdles, also adding B string second places in the vault, high jump and javelin. Alex Law's comeback from injury continued as he was second in the B long jump and improved his best in the vault and non scoring shot.

Josh Olawore was closed to his long jump best but had to settle for second place and was third in the 200m, while John Adekoya chalked up good points in both sprints and high and long jumps.

There was a hat-trick of wins in the B 400m, 800m and 1500m as Michael Duncan, Billy Rungay and Jamie-Buckley-Stanton respectively claimed the spoils and there were good points in the A strings thanks to Tom Pitkin, Paul Kavanagh and Paul Grange. Ian Anthony and Martin Chester toiled in the hot sunny conditions for 5000m runners up points.

The victory has lifted the club off the bottom of the table but the team managers will hope to take strong squads to Basingstoke next month and Portsmouth in August to ensure another year in the top flight.
